English Written Communication Exercise for Professionals

Candidate: Smith, John

Evaluation date: 2008/05/20

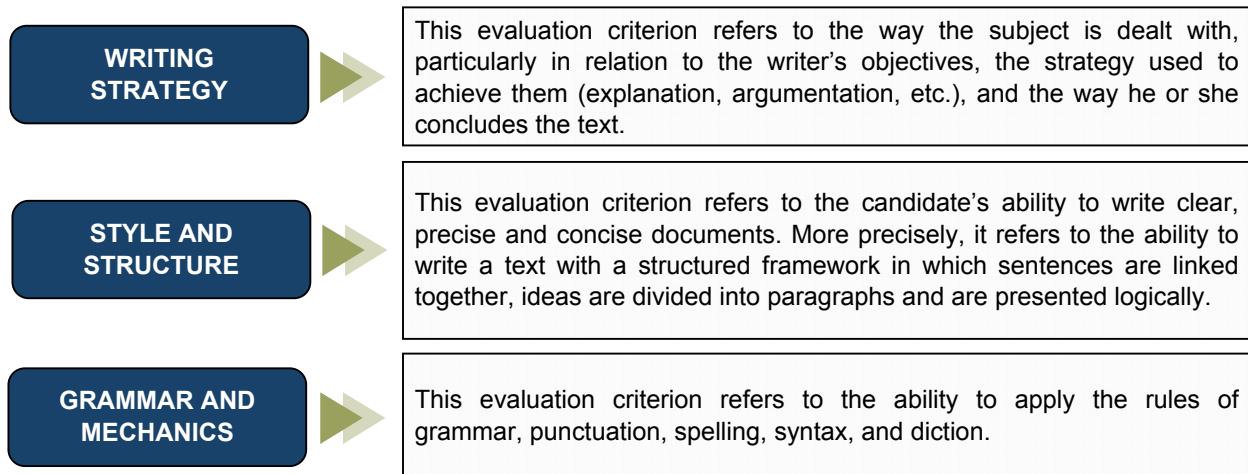

Explanation note on the type of test

The English Written Communication Exercise for Professionals (WCE-PRO-EN 08) evaluates the candidate's ability to communicate in written English while working within the context of a professional work environment. Three main criteria are evaluated: writing strategy, structure and style, as well as grammar and mechanics of the text.

This exercise does not assess the specific knowledge for this field of employment.

Definition of evaluated components

This test evaluates WRITTEN COMMUNICATION SKILLS, i.e., the ability to express ideas in writing with the appropriate language and free of errors in order to transmit information effectively. More specifically, the three following aspects are evaluated.

Overall result

The overall result, which is expressed as a percentage, indicates the candidate's performance in relation to the three components evaluated. The recommended passing mark for this test is of 60%, which indicates that the candidate has adequately demonstrated the ability to express his or her ideas in writing within the context of a work situation.

OVERALL RESULT

The candidate has obtained 61 points out of a possible 100. Therefore, the final result is of:
